summer JAZZ institute

at Illinois Wesleyan University in Bloomington, Illinois

Presser Hall, IWU's School of Music

For music teachers, at all grade levels, and for musicians who do not perform jazz music, who wish to increase their knowledge of all aspects of jazz music and who seek professional development opportunities.

Subjects and activities will include:

JAZZ ESSENTIALS: harmony, chord progressions, chord voicings, rhythm, interpreting lead sheets and chord symbols, chord substitutions, reharmonization techniques, introductions, turnarounds, and endings.

JAZZ IMPROVISATION: a systematic approach to jazz improvisation and to teaching jazz improvisation

JAZZ ARRANGING TECHNIQUES: for piano, and for small and large ensembles

JAZZ RESOURCES: web sites, software, and music publishers

JAZZ SURVEY: history and styles

Also, scheduled time in the computer lab for individual projects, and much more!

The faculty:

The principal faculty member will be Dr. Mario J. Pelusi, Professor of Composition and Theory and Director of the School of Music at Illinois Wesleyan University. An accomplished composer, theorist, and conductor, Dr. Pelusi holds the M.F.A. and Ph.D. degrees in composition from Princeton University, and the B.M. and M.M. degrees in composition from the University of Southern California. For detailed biographical information, visit www.iwu.edu/music and select "faculty profiles."

Additional instruction will be provided by faculty members with particular expertise in the area of music technology.
